Seventy-seven prisoners were confined in the county jail during the past year, fifteen of them for violation of the local option law.

The board of supervisors think that three dollars per week is enough for the board of prisoners in jail. And why not? The county can board its guests at the Dyckman House for that money, and they will be furnished a night-key.

Van Buren county expended during the year ending Sept. 30, $13,604.02 for the support of her poor, nearly $9,000 of which was for temporary relief in the several townships. The cost of maintenance of paupers at the county house is $2.30 per week.
